

Edelpha (Envases del Pacífico S.A.)

www.edelpha.cl

The Chilean-based Edelpha provides packaging solutions for manufacturers through Latin America and the United States. The company's custom packaging is designed to the specifications of their clients, and they draw from over 50 years of experience in order to meet ever-changing technical demands.

BIRT allows Edelpha's internal users to report on production and operational activities, tapping into ongoing data from the machines throughout their factory. The company particularly likes BIRT's simplicity of use and user-friendly nature.
